

$6.8M Total community investment

TOBACCO

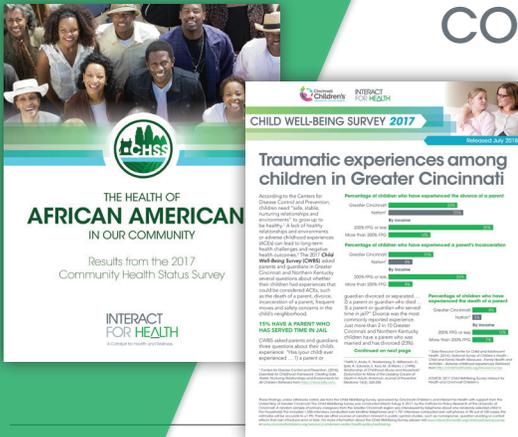

- Funded air-quality testing in Williamstown, Ky. ; data used to pass smoke-free law there
- Educated about Tobacco 21 ahead of its passage in Cincinnati

OPIOIDS

- Supported eight quick response teams in Southwestern Ohio, Northern Kentucky
- Supported operation of syringe services programs in Northern Kentucky, Southwestern Ohio

COMMUNITY DATA

- Released Child Well-Being Survey results with Cincinnati Children's Hospital
- Produced report on the health of African Americans in region

COMMUNICATIONS

Website redesigned to be more visual and highlight Interact for Health's original content

www.interactforhealth.org

INTERACT FOR HEALTH THRIVING COMMUNITIES

Five grantees completed their five-year program: Brown County, Evanston, Pendleton County, Urban Appalachians and Walnut Hills

LEARNING CENTER

- 15 in-person workshops
- 735 attendees

CONFERENCE CENTER

- 1,335 meetings
- 23,000 attendees

SCHOOL-BASED HEALTH CENTERS

- First SBHCs opened in Clermont, Warren counties
- $2.5M center with vision, dental opened on East Side of Cincinnati